QUESTIONS ABOUT CANCER? TALK TO US

Macmillan Cancer Information and Support Centres in Lincolnshire

When you, or someone close to you, is diagnosed with cancer you may have many questions and concerns. We're here to help.

Where we are

You can find Macmillan Cancer Information and Support Centres at:

Lincoln County Hospital (see page 2 for details)

Grantham and District Hospital (see page 3 for details)

Pilgrim Hospital, Boston (see back page for details)

Each centre is staffed by health professionals supported by a team of trained volunteers.

The Centres are provided by Macmillan Cancer Support working with United Lincolnshire Hospitals NHS Trust.

What we offer

- A warm welcome to anyone affected by cancer who needs our help.
- A drop-in service – no appointments or referrals needed.
- Free, confidential advice, support and information about anything to do with cancer.
- A wide range of leaflets and materials in different formats and languages.
- Information about local support groups, counselling services and benefits advisors.
- Someone to talk to who understands what you're going through.
- Resources for health and social care professionals.

The kind of questions people ask us

- How can I find out more about the type of cancer I have?
- We're struggling financially. Can I claim any benefits?
- Do I have to tell my travel insurers I have cancer?
- How can I meet other people with the same sort of cancer?
- My father has cancer. He lives miles away. How can I help him?
